

FOR YOUR INTEREST: QUOTES FROM THE BOOK “LORDS OF FINANCE”.
(The bankers who broke the world).

- “Read no history – nothing but biography, for that is life without theory.” (Disraeli)
- “Tis a common proof, that lowliness is young ambition’s ladder.” (Shakespeare)
- “Endless money forms the sinews of war.” (Cicero)
- “Lenin was certainly right. There is no subtler, no surer means of overturning the existing basis of society than to debauch the currency.” (Keynes)
- “Time will run back and fetch the age of gold.” (Milton)
- “Let me issue and control a nation’s currency, and I care not who writes the laws.” (Mayer Rothschild)
- “Only peril can bring the French together. One can’t impose unity out of the blue on a country that has 265 different kinds of cheese.” (DeGaulle)
- “Circumstances rule men; men do not rule circumstances.” (Herodotus)
- “If stupidity got us into this mess, then why can’t it get us out?” (Will Rogers)
- “Money has no motherland; financiers are without patriotism and without decency; their sole object is gain.” (Bonaparte)
- “If a man will begin with certainties, he will end in doubts; but if he will be content to begin with doubts, he shall end in certainties.” (Bacon)
- “I have yet to see any problem, however complicated, which, when looked at in the right way did not become still more complicated.” (Poul Anderson)

P.S. An extraordinary book. Not light reading. Not finished! Chapter on Germany “Loose Cannon on the Deck of the World” very scary.
